

World Urban Forum

Urban Equity in Development - Cities for Life

Medellín, Colombia | 5-11 April 2014

Course Outline

(Deadline for submission: 12 February 2014)

Training Title	How to Learn and Implement the Right to the City Building Democratic and Sustainable Cities
Name of Organization	Polis Institute for Studies Training and Consulting in Social Policies
Profile of Lecturers (max 200 words)	Nelson Saule Júnior Urban Law specialist Coordinator General of Polis Institute – Brazil , Alvaro Sanchez Professor of University of Sevilha in urban environmental law Leticia Marques Osório Officer Program Human Rights Ford Foundation, Lorena Zaratte - President of Habitat International Coaliton Eva Garcia Chueca Coordinator on Committee on Social Inclusion, Participatory Democracy and Human Rights / United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG)
Learning Objectives (max 100 words)	A better understanding of the conceptual elements of the right to the city and legal, administrative and judicial tools that may be used for the implementation of this right in the cities A better understanding of initiatives and experiences in which the right to the city can be used as references for the development of policies, programs and projects of urban development for the city building inclusive, democratic and sustainable cities
Thematic Focus	Conceptual elements ,initiatives and experiences for the implementation the right to the city  The role of the right to the city for the development of just cities Development of inclusive, democratic and sustainable cities
Issues to be discussed (max 50 words)	conceptual elements of the right to the city and legal, administrative and judicial tools that may be used for the implementation of this right in the cities  Initiatives and experiences in which the right to the city can be used as references for building democratic and sustainable cities  Activities of training on the right to the city

Brief Outline of the Course (max 200 words)	To present the guidelines, principles and tools for training programs and projects of the Right to the City To present a guidelines to organize and disseminate training programs related to the concept , principles, and instrument to implement the Right to the City To disseminate and analyze tools already implemented for the Right to the City, according several national and local initiatives.
Target Audience	Academy _research, civil society organization, foundation, individual, local government, national government
Number of participants (max 50)	50